2005 Blackbutt

90

The purple-colored 2005 Blackbutt is a blend of 59% Cabernet Sauvignon, 28% Malbec, 11% Cabernet Franc, and 2% Merlot and spent 22 months in French oak. It offers up an attractive nose of cedar, spice box, leather, black currant, and blackberry. On the palate, its finesse and subtlety are reminiscent of a quality St.-Julien. Give this lengthy effort several years to blossom and drink it from 2011 to 2020.
